Generation 1

1. JOYCE CORRELLA <sup>1</sup>HOUSTON was born on 30 Sep 1927 in Crosbyton, Crosby, TX. She died on 18 Apr 2017 in La Mesa, San Diego, CA. She married Edgar Robert Wisley on 18 May 1945 in Stockton, San Joaquin, CA. He was born on 12 Jul 1925 in San Diego, San Diego, CA. He died on 11 Jun 2002 in La Mesa, San Diego, CA.

Notes for Joyce Corrella Houston:

Born 30 Sep 1927, on a farm east of Crosbyton, TX, about 40 miles east of Lubbock, TX. Her Mother said she named her "Joyce" because she was a "Joy" to her. By the time she was 5 the family had moved to Dickens County, TX.

By 1938, her family had moved to Montague County, TX, near the town of Sunset, where they bought an 80 acre farm. She and her youngest brother walked 5 miles to school, rain or shine to a one room school. Her oldest brothers went off and joined the C.C.C. camps.

By early 1943, her 3 older brothers had been called into the Army or joined the Navy. Her father decided the family should move to Stockton, CA, where her oldest sister, Oleta, and family lived. Her father and youngest brother found work in the shipyards as welders, with her brother going part time to school. In 1944, he was drafted into the Army. Shortly afterwards, her parents insisted she get her driver's license, they didn't care to drive, especially in the big city. Finally she got up enough nerve to tackle this chore. As she was driving, with the Department of Motor Vehicles officer, she came to an intersection with no four way stops. The first thing she knew, a car appeared in front of her, and she hit the car broadside, doing very little damage, as she was not going very fast. The woman driving the car had not noticed the officer in the car with Joyce so she began to tell her off. The officer spoke up, telling her it was her fault, that she had the right-of-way. The officer could not grant her the license, but asked her to come back in a few weeks. The pressure from her parents got so bad, that after a few weeks she ventured back. Would you believe she got the same officer! They probably didn't drive more than 4 blocks, with the officer telling her every little thing she should do. He issued her a driver's license.

In Jan 1945, she met her future husband at a roller skating rink in Stockton, CA. His ship had come to Stockton for some needed repairs. She guessed it was love at first sight, because they became engaged within a month, but because he was due to ship out for 2 years they decided to wait to get married. In March 1945, his ship the USS Skylark, a mine sweeper, was hit and sunk by mines while sweeping the mine fields off the coast of Okinawa, Japan. All survivors were picked up by a U.S. destroyer after they had been in the water for several hours. As a survivor, he was granted a 45 day leave. He returned to the United States and they were married May 18, 1945, after she promised her parents that she would finish her last month of high school. After that, he got shore duty not far from Stockton. By October 1945, he was discharged from the Navy and they decided to move to San Diego, CA, where he was born and raised. Her parents had already moved back to their farm in Texas, where they rebuilt their home into a more modern house, doing all the work themselves, even though they were both in their late fifties.

Soon after their arrival in San Diego, her husband got a job working at NAS North Island for Federal Civil Service. Joyce worked part-time at odd jobs, while raising a daughter and son. Later she worked as a bookkeeper. In 1953, she and her husband bought their present home in La Mesa, CA
